Engineering Tech Talk

Tuesday 11th November
4:00pm
Auditorium 101a. Vileikos
street 8, Kaunas

Facebook is hiring brilliant engineers for full-time and internship opportunities who want to make an impact and help us shape the way the world connects and shares with each other.

Join us on campus at Vytautas Magnus University for a technical talk with Facebook engineer, Kestutis.

Topic: Freezing Exabytes of data at Facebook Cold Storage - find out about a cloud based storage system that was recently built at Facebook.

Please RSVP so that we know who's coming.

Even with 1 billion users, our journey is still 1% finished? we hope to see you there!
